

SANITATION TRAINING!!

Sponsored By: NJ School Nutrition Association (NJSNA)

NJSNA is happy to announce that we are once again offering Sanitation Training and the Certification Test approved by the NJ Department of Health.

A major change in the new Chapter 24, NJ Dept. Of Health Food Code, required that by January 2, 2010 at least one person in each Risk 3 and Risk 4 school be certified. To determine if your school is a Risk 3 or 4 food site you must contact your local or county health department.

Attendees should have previous sanitation training. NJSNA will provide 6 hours of classroom training. A “Certified Professional Food Manager” Exam will be administered on the 2nd day of instruction.
